

ფაკულტეტი	ბიზნესისა და ლოგისტიკის
პროგრამა	სატრანსპორტო ლოგისტიკა (მაგისტრატურა)
კომპონენტი	გამოცდა ინგლისური ენა (B2)

Listening -15 Points

1. Recording 1 Listen to a conversation between two flat mates. Circle the correct answer, a, b or c.

1. Why has Will made the dinner tonight?

- a. Because he's not feeling well.
- b. Because he hasn't got enough money to pay the rent. •
- c. Because he knows that Jenna is too busy to make it.

2. What has Will spent his money on this month?

- a. a new phone
- b. getting his laptop repaired for work
- c. a new laptop

3. What does Will say about his new laptop?

- a. It's quicker than his previous one.
- b. It's only six months old.
- c. He left it at work.

4. Where did Will go on holiday?

- a. He's forgotten where he went.
- b. He went on a luxury holiday to Italy.
- c. He went for a week to Spain.

5. When does Will say he will pay back the money?

- a. this month
- b. next week
- c. in two weeks' time

6. What does Jenna say about Will's money after he has paid his share of the bills?

- a. He can spend it how he wants to.
- b. He must save it.
- c. He should buy something nice for dinner.

2. Recording 2 Listen to a radio programme about rivalry. Number the different kinds of rivalry in the correct order.

- a. workplace rivalry _____
- b. student rivalry _____
- c. rivalry between companies _____
- d. sibling rivalry _____
- e. rivalry between schools _____
- f. rivalry in sport 1 _____

3. Recording 2 Listen again and write true (T), false (F) or no information (NI).

1. Russia and Canada are big rivals in ice hockey. T
2. There's rivalry between Lynda and her neighbours.
3. Encouraging students to be competitive does not have a negative impact.
4. The majority of students at Lynda's school did not go to university.
5. Rivalry at work is similar to rivalry between brothers and sisters.
6. Rivalry between schools sometimes leads to crime.

Reading – 30 points

Text 1

I've never been there!

I love travelling around the world and I've visited so many countries, I've lost count. It's been amazing to see such wonderful places and have so many fantastic experiences. It blew my mind to see lions while on safari in South Africa and I couldn't believe my luck when the boat came across a group of whales in New Zealand. But I've never actually been on a boat or a plane and I hardly ever get on a train. When I do, it's just to visit family members that don't live far from me. And even though I am old enough to drive, I don't have a car. The thing is, all the travelling that I do is virtual.

Thanks to social media and the adventurous travellers who are kind enough to post their videos, photos and stories online, I get to 'do' things and 'go' places – at least virtually – that I never imagined possible. But even better, I get to choose when and where I go, and what I see and read about are usually the very best bits of someone's travel experience. It's nearly always the case that the things people post online are the positive experiences of their trips. They rarely write about when things go wrong or aren't as enjoyable as expected. So I don't find out about any poor customer service they might have had when booking flights or have to deal with rude staff at cheap hotels. I don't have to be able to cope with emergency situations. I don't get my wallet stolen or have an accident skiing and spend a week in hospital, and I don't have to wait for a flight that has been delayed because of stormy weather. There's no losing my passport, because I don't have one and never have had. No, all that I get to experience is the good stuff. I've been up close to poisonous snakes and lots of scary animals, in fact as close as the person holding the camera is bold enough to get, but without it ever being dangerous for me.

I've been riding on a camel in the desert in Morocco one minute, and just a few mouse clicks later, I've been standing halfway up a snow-covered mountain in Argentina, or simply lying on a beach in the south of France. What more could I want?

OK, it may be true that I can't actually taste the beautiful, exotic dishes that are filmed close up, or smell the brightly coloured spices in the market in India, or feel the warm, vivid blue waters of the Caribbean Sea, but I can imagine these things. And consider the money I'm saving! I don't splash out on flights or hotels. For me there's no getting into credit-card debt or paying back a loan for an expensive holiday in a faraway place.

I suppose the one disadvantage is that I go to so many places that it's probably not as memorable as experiencing the real thing, as doing the actual travelling. In fact, I can't really recall where I virtually went yesterday, after being to so many different places already today!

1. Read the travel blog and write the countries next to each activity.

1. watching big wild cats
2. relaxing on a beach
3. looking at things for sale
4. seeing animals in the sea
5. enjoying a snowy, natural scene

2. Read the travel blog again and write true (T), false (F) or no information (NI).

1. The author has never been abroad.
2. The author has flown only once before.
3. The author has never learnt to drive.

4. According to the author, people usually post positive travel experiences on social media. _____
5. The author does not travel because he lost his passport. _____
6. The author often contacts the people who post their travel stories on social media. _____
7. The author mentions the blue waters of the Mediterranean Sea. _____
8. The author doesn't stay in hotels. _____
9. The author says the Caribbean is the most beautiful place that they've seen. _____
10. The author used to be in debt. _____

Grammar – 20 points

1. Choose the correct answer, a, b or c to complete the sentences.

1. This one is the most popular model.
a. much by b. by far c. far by
2. It's pointleaving now. It will be finished by the time we get there.
a. -less b. -able c. -ish
3. She's qualified and has a lot of relevant experience for the position.
a. extremely b. absolutely c. highly
4. You..... go and see the manager now; she's waiting for you in her office.
a. 've got to b. 're allowed to c. mustn't
5. I can't sense of this recipe. Chilli and ice cream doesn't sound right to me.
a. give b. take c. make
6. I his phone all morning, but there was no answer.
a. kept call b. kept calling c. keeping call
7. He to have gone to university when he was younger, but it's too late now.
a. should b. ought c. wished
8. A: Did either Raul or Markus make it to the party?
B: No, of them, unfortunately.
a. neither b. both c. none
9. As a kid she kick a football around for hours in the garden.
a. would to b. used c. would
10. Does the email from Toni make to you at all?
a. sense b. reason c. clear

2. Choose the correct alternatives.

1. He must be exhausting / exhausted after running a marathon in that heat.
2. I haven't seen / haven't been seeing that film you recommended yet.
3. Recently, we've tried / 've been trying to book a holiday, but still haven't chosen one.
4. Lots of people get sent / send junk mail from companies they don't know.
5. Don't worry, the problem with the computer system is dealing with / being dealt with by IT.
6. They've been / been going to almost every national park in the country.
7. To be honest, my first day in the new job was a little bit overwhelming / overwhelmed.
8. The question we're asking is whether the spread of the disease can control / be controlled.
9. I don't think Diana was totally convincing / convinced by our presentation.
10. She's saved / 's been saving up to buy a guitar ever since she went to her first rock concert.

Vocabulary – 15 Points

1. Match 1–8 with a–h.

1. I think you should get _____
2. She couldn't believe her _____
3. Was I really at David's that night? I have _____
4. I'd be _____
5. Toni thinks that tackling _____

6. I don't understand her. She's always trying to pick _____
7. I understand the burglar was sentenced _____
8. I admire you. You have a real flair _____
- no memory of that dinner at all.
 - delivery problems should be our priority.
 - for creating beautiful, decorative objects.
 - to do 100 hours of community service.
 - luck when she found her wedding ring in the garden.
 - straight to the point and tell me what happened.
 - willing to work on Saturday if you need help.
 - a fight with someone.

2. Complete the sentences with the words given below. One word is extra.

bear; break; cut; elegant; evade; google; rude; stubborn;

- She's veryshe won't change her mind.
- I'm not sure how he managed to arrest for so long, but the jewellery shop thief has been caught now.
- Why don't you look for the answer online? Just it.
- We're looking for a pair of identical, vases for the living room.
- I've decided to back on sugar. I really have too much of it in my diet at the moment.
- Pleasein mind that this is my first day, so I might not remember everyone's name.
- The staff were a bit – they completely ignored us and never smiled once.

Writing – 10 Points

Write a detailed description of a member of your family or a close friend. Write two to three paragraphs and include the following information:

- how you met (if writing about a friend)
- appearance
- mannerisms and behaviour
- hobbies and preferences (food,music,cinema,art, etc.)
- character.

write 150-200 words

Speaking – 10 Points

Imagine you meet your future self and you can ask questions about future events. Choose what you would like to ask about (at least 3) or use your own ideas.

- discover my purpose in life/my true vocation/my unique talent
- find a place I can call home/a sense of belonging
- use my artistic ability/my unique talent
- live in a place of my own/alone
- (still) have a sense of adventure/my core principles/an active life
- lose my sense of adventure/my core principles/all like-minded friends